Link Your Coursework to Your Identity

Get Started

×

Feedback — Week 2 Quiz

Help

You submitted this quiz on Tue 14 Oct 2014 10:28 AM PDT. You got a score of 5.00 out of 5.00.

Question 1

In the Northeast Ohio case, how were foundations that had not traditionally supported entrepreneurship or economic development convinced of the need to dedicate resources in this area? (Mark all that apply).

Your Answer		Score	Explanation
Philanthropy is a major player in the Silicon Valley entrepreneurial ecosystem	~	0.25
There was an opportunity to leverage government matching funds	~	0.25
Local government required it	~	0.25
Investing in entrepreneurs supported the community as well as their other projects	~	0.25
Total		1.00 / 1.00

Question 2

The metrics for success from philanthropic support are exactly the same as government/private sector when it comes to economic development.

Your Answer		Score	Explanation
True
False	~	1.00
Total		1.00 / 1.00

Question 3

Why could donors potentially have a different tolerance for the risk of entrepreneurship programs than government or the private sector? (Mark all that apply)

Your Answer		Score	Explanation
Donors are not concerned about losing money.	~	0.25
Philanthropic organizations operate under harsher scrutiny than the government.	~	0.25
Donors are able to take a longer-term view on their investments because their mission statements are not contingent on political administration turnover.	~	0.25
Donors may have a preferred industry or be more willing to risk money in a certain sector.	~	0.25
Total		1.00 / 1.00

Question 4

What is donor fatigue?

Your Answer Score Explanation

✓ 1.00
1.00 /

Question 5 Corporate donations are often important sources of philanthropic support in international settings. Your Answer Score Explanation True ✓ 1.00 Total 1.00 / 1.00 https://class.coursera.org/entpecon-002/quiz/...